

Reappointed Treasurer of I-INCE

Four more years supporting this major international noise control organization

January 10th, 2024 - Copenhagen, Denmark

As of 1st January 2024, Douglas Manvell, Founder and Director of DMdB, formally starts a new period as Treasurer of the International Institute of Noise Control Engineering (I-INCE), the key supporter of INTER-NOISE. This reappointment for another 4 years extends Douglas' 8-year period already served.

The International Institute of Noise Control Engineering (I-INCE), founded in 1974, is a worldwide consortium of organizations concerned with noise control, acoustics and vibration. I-INCE is the sponsor of the world-leading INTER-NOISE Series of international congresses on noise control engineering held annually in leading cities of the world. I-INCE also co-sponsors symposia and jointly publishes Noise/News International with the Institute of Noise Control Engineering of the USA (INCE/USA). I-INCE supports technical initiatives including Technical Study Groups and support for Young Professionals in noise control.

Douglas Manvell states "I am very happy, thankful and proud to continue with this position. I look forward to continuing to work to ensure the international exchange of noise control best practice and professional networking in cooperation with the other members of the I-INCE Executive and Board."

As the chief financial officer of the Institute, the Treasurer is responsible for the finances of the Institute and reports to the Board of Directors and the General Assembly in line with the Institute's by laws. The treasurer is also a member of the institute's Executive Committee that supports the management of the Institute between meetings of the Board and the General Assembly.
